EMAND IS VERY HEAVY

ASHINGTON, May 18.—Pross in the handling of the ght jam was reported late to- by the Intrestate Commerce nmission which announced t the movement of empty box s for grain loading had begun large volumes westward from w England and the Atlantic board.

he cars are being moved in d trains and their transfer is ched continually to avoid de-, the commission said.

multaneously a counter move- at of cars for coal loading has n instituted from the middle t to the east.

he commissinon announced t this plan would be continued til a more proper balance of se classes of equipment is ob- ed," and predicted considere relief both by providing d and fuel and by easing the ncial strain.

fficals of the American Raild association predicted a ular and continuous move- t' of empty cars within a rt period, but the association's service committee warned the demands for cars continto increase and that the al- on of equipment should be e with utmost care for a furr jame.

eports for two weeks show light decrease in loaded cars iting movement, but it was small as to be regarded as negble according to officials. It ved, however, to indicate that jam soon might be broken.

abor differences described as remely "unfavorable" by the erstate Commerce Commission e seriously handicapped the k of clearing terminals.

Grave Crisis.

grave crisis "involving indusl life of the country," has reed from failure of the coal rators to obtain an adequate ply, the National Coal Associon declared tonight in a genl survey.

he United Mine Workers of erica, in a statment quoting n Moore, president of the o miners, said that if nothing done to relieve the situation public would find itself with- coal next winter.

tesponsibility, Mr. Moore rged, 'rests on the railroads their unjust and unfair disnination in the desitribution oal cars."

he coal association said efs to obtain relief had been unling that the shortage of n top cars in the coal fields fifty to 65 per cent below mal, threatening "a paralysis ndustries."

ecause of the inadequate supof the open cars to carry " the statement said, "ownof many mines east of the ippi have been forced to run r mines only one to two days eek. This enforced curtailt is seriously affecting operaof industrial plants in the dle west and in the east."

Railroads consume approxiely one third of the total soft output," Mr. Moore said, the public consumes the er twothirds. At present the roads, especially in Ohio, are ing practically all coal being duced and leaving none for public.

PRESENT COUNTY ORGANIZATION PLAN FAVORED BY CON CON

Consolidation of Various Elective Offices Defeated After Long Deate

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 18.—All of the officers provided for in the present form of county organization should be maintained, the Illinois constitutional convention decide dtoday. A minority report from the committee on county and township organization which sought to consolidate the offices of sheriff and coroner, of circuit clerk an drecorder of deeds and of county treasurer, assessor and collector was defeated after a long debate.

The convention decided to retain the provision of the present constitution that the offices of the circuit clerk and recorder shall be separate in counties having over 60,000 population. As in the present constitution the offices may still be consolidated in counties having less than this number.

Delegates from the larger counties declared that the business of the recorder's office is so voluminous as to require the attention of one official.

Debate on a provision of the minority report to prevent county treasurers and sheriffs from succeeding themselves in office was begun late this afternoon but was not concluded, the convention leaving decision on this subject until tomorrow.

The convention, at the morning session, decided to exclude Cook county from the provisions of the county and township article now under consideration. Organization of Cook county affairs will be dealt with in a separate article. The first three sections of the article, which are substantially the same as those in the constitution of 1870, were adopted.

The committee on legislative department has completed its article for the new constitution with the exception of the section providing for apportionment of representation in the general assembly. The question of apportionment is still undecided on account of the difference of opinion between Chicago and down state delegates over limitation of Cook county in the legislature.

The final section of the article provides for a pension fund for state employes. It gives the legislature power to authorize that a part of the pay of any public employe may be contributed to a death, disability or retirement fund for the benefit of state employes.

PESCRIBE FLIGHT OF CARRANZA TO THE MOUNTAINS

"We Are Lost, Good-Bye Gentlemen," Final Words

REBEL ENVOY AT WASHINGTON

MEXICO CITY, May 18—"We are lost goodbye gentlemen' these were Carranza's final words before his flight from the besieged trains on May 14, while pausing before a crowd of terrified civilian refugees east of San Marcos, accompanied by a few intimates and guarded by "a very small cavalry force."

Carranza crossed the narrow valley thru which the Mexican Railway passes, stopped to watch the liberal revolutionary forces occupy the stalled trains; then disappeared in the mountains.

It is believed certain Carranza is heading northeast toward the coast, intending to board a steamer and escape. Judging from the list of captured officials and generals received here, few are accompanying him. Among them are believed to be Luis Cabrera, secretary of the treasury, General Francisco Murgula, commander of the train guards and Ygnacio Bonillas, former ambassador to the United States.

Another inventory of the funds of one train shows many gold and silver bars, but comparatively little minted coins. Pastor Ruax, secretary of agriculture was in charge of this train.

A motor truck of gold coin which the Carranza party attempted to carry off broke down and the soldiers appropriated most of it.

With more than 2,500 prisoners counted, it is believed that the strong and heavily armed force which Carranza took with him has been scattered as hundreds of the soldiers fled into the mountains when the president abandoned the trains. Refugees tell pitiful stories of hardships and terrors which began with the flight from Mexico City May 7. Hunger, thirst and bullets added to the uncertainty of their fate.

They express bitterness at Carranza's failure to accept the safe conduct offered him by Generals Gonzales and Obregon. It is believed possible however, that Carranza did not know Vera Cruz had been captured nor that virtually the entire populace had turned against him. Cavalry columns are pursuing Carranza. The pursuit is difficult because of the nature of the terrain.

Mexican Labor Leader at Capital

Washington, May 18.—Luis Maronez, labor leader of Mexico and known as the "Gompers of Mexico", arrived today as special commissioner of the de facto government.

Reports to the state department announcing plans for his visit suggested the possibility of his appointment later as chief diplomat representative to the United States.

Dressed as a railway brakeman, Maronez accompanied General Obregon when the latter fled from Mexico City. He was elected to the presidency of the Mexican Confederation of Labor as a railway worker, and is regarded as among the more advanced thinkers of the labor group.

The acting chief of the confidential agency here is Dr. A. T. Diaz, to whom Maronez reported.

Further indications that the de facto government was settling more firmly into power was contained in a summary of news in the Mexican press sent by the American embassy to the state department today. The state governments of Yucatan and Campeche have announced their support of the new government, and Villa, it was announced was proceeding to the capital without millitary support.

The summary said the newspapers applauded the withdrawal of Pablo Gomez from the presidential race saying it would reduce the chief cause of conflict. The most outstanding contender is now Obregon.

Carranza was reported to be moving north from the hills west of Jalapa.

TIME AND ONE HALF OVERTIME FOR RAIL WORKERS IS OPPOSED

Taulation of Wages Since 1903 Presented to Board by White

CHICAGO, May 18.—Opposition to the rule that trainmen, brakemen and conductors receive time and a half for overtime was expressed today before the railroad labor board by E. T. Whiter, chairman of the conference committee of the railroad managers, who is presenting the carries' side to demands of railroad employes for wage advances of approximately $1,000,000,000 yearly.

Reading from a memorandum of Former Director General Hines he declared it was "an absolutely unqualified penalty" and that the principle of overtime pay was wrong because it was a "restrictive feature, punitive in effect."

Complete tabulations of wages paid since 1903 were presented by Mr. Whiter. According to one table wage demands before the board range from 72 to 124 per cent above salaries paid in 1913.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—A reiterated statement by Representative Madden, republican of Illinois, in the house today that the confederates of Civil war days days were traitors, evoked a storm of protest from south members.

Representative Stedman, democrat, of North Carolina, confederate veteran, declared Mr. Madden's similar remark last week would be disapproved by a majority of the people. Madden replied he had no apalogy to make. The confederates were traitors because they attempted to destroy the Union, Mr. Madden said and asked.

"And does anyone deny it?"

There was an uproar from the democrats, several southern members shouting "yes" and others "you're a litar."

Representative Romjue, democrat, of Missouri, arose from his seat, starting toward Madden, as did Representative Johnson, democrat of Mississippi, but both stopped short. Madden turned toward the democratic side and said:

"They were traitors. You say no, and I say yes. They did try to destroy the Union."

PRICE OF BREAD WILL CONTINUE HIGH

CHICAGO, May 18.—The cost of bread will not be reduced unless the price of flour decreases at least $4 a barrel, Eugene Lipp, president of the National Retail at a meetinshrdluetahrdltuauoo Baker's Assoication said today at a meeting of the Illinois Asso ciation said today at a meeting of the Illinois Association of the baking industry. He said existing high costs of material entering into the making of bread and the holding back of wheat shipments because of congested transportation, probably would result in a still higher price of bread.

Increase of 20 per cent in the consumption of bread would save the people more than $2,000,000,000 a year, Mr. Lipp said, by reducing the cost of other foods through reductions in their demand.

Small bakeries today are not making halp the profits they were in 1914, he said.

Hays Speaks to Women

A bevy of women suffrage workers fresh from their unavailing labors to obtain ratification of the suffrage amendment by the Delaware legislature heckled Will H. Hays, Republican national chairman who spoke today at a meeting of Republican women here. Interruptions designed to make him explain why the Republican majority at Dover could not force adoption of the amendment, began when he rose to speak and kept the assemblage in an intermittent uproar.

"As soon as you have had more experience in practical politics," Mr. Hays told the first questioner, "you will understand party officials do not cary legislatures in their pockets.

"The Republican organization has done everything it honorably could do to induce the Delaware legislature to act."

Later when he pleaded for Republican support because Republican officials could be counted on to insure good government, another woman asked:

"How can you make such a promise when you can't count on the Republican legislature you already have in power in Delaware?"

Mr. Hays recounted that of the 35 states which had ratified 29 were Republican and asked his questioners why they did not call on some Democratic states. He predicted that if Delaware did not ratify some other state would do so in time to make the amendment effective by November.

CITIZEN'S POLICE FORCE IN MEETING

Make Plans for Enforcement of Traffic Ordinance—All Vehicles Must Carry Lights—Enforcement Will Start Today.

A meeting of the Citizens Police force was held at the city hall list night. The meeting was called to order by Mayor E. E. Crabtree. After a few remarks Mayor Crabtree introduced Judge Paul Samuell as Chairman.

Judge Samuell spoke of traffic conditions in Jacksonville and said that it was "high time that something be done to regulate traffic in Jacksonville." He said that during the winter months the traffic laws had been fairly well obeyed but that with the coming of spring traffic conditions had fallen into the old rut.

Judge Samuell said that Jacksonville's traffic plan had received wide publicity and he had received several inquiries as to the success of the plan. He said he considered the citizen's police force a success but that he wanted to make it a complete success and the only way to accomplish this was by active work.

Copies of the traffic ordinance will soon be ready for distribution and the city officials request that all owners of vehicles read the ordinance carefully and try and keep within the law.

It is not the intention of the traffic officers or the city officials to work a hardship on anyone, but their sole desire is to make Jacksonville a safe place for both pedestrians and vehicle drivers. This can be accomplished if everyone will get together.

One feature of the new traffic ordinance provides that all vehicles must carry lights. This includes all vehicles whether motor or horse driven. Wagons and buggies must carry a red light on the left rear side and one white light on the front. This applies to all horse driven vehicles whether owned in or out of the city.

About 45 persons were present at the meeting last night and Chief of Police Kiloran stated that the force would be put to work today.

WAVE OF PRICE CUTTING SWEEPING WESTERN STATES

Twenty Four Large Cities Report Reductions

LIMITED TO READY TO WEAR

CHICAGO, May 18.—A wave of price cutting in retail clothing costs from the Mississippi Valley to the Pacific coast was reported today. Dispatches from 24 cities told of promised reductions from 15 per cent to minus profit.

Financial authorities said that the indications were that the price decline would be limited to ready to wear clothing, principally women's garments and silks. Shoes were also affected Tight money and inadequate transportation facilities weer cited among prime reasons for the movement. Delays in delivery of goods in which much money had been tied up together with inability of farmers to get grain and livestock to market were said in many instances to have worked a hardship on merchants.

An officer of one local leading department store declared that the price reduction meant also that merchants were trying to satisfy what he called "a hysterical demand from the public for lower prices." These current reductions, he said, might be only temporary.

A financial authority said if reports of price cutting were dependable, they indicated a tendency toward a reduction in inventories. Though this might be temporary, he said, it was undoubtedly good, in that it suggested merchants were going ahead more cautiously.

In Topeka, Kansas, a men's clothing firm announced a "no profit sale."

Department stores in St. Louis advertised "under selling campaigns."

Twenty per cent cuts were the most popular. On the Pacific coast Tacoma dealers announced cuts from 20 per cent to "profitless sales."

Three Seattle retailers cut clothing 20 per cent. In San Francisco one retailer announced a 20 per cent cut in all lines, another 20 to 50 per cent in certain commodities. At Everett, Wash., two men's stores announced 20 per cent clothing cuts.

Three large Omaha stores several days ago announced a reduction of 20 per cent and other Omaha stores have followed. Several stores there said their silk cuts were 50 per cent. In York, Nebr., a 20 per cent cut in ladies' silk and woolen garments was made; in Wichita, Kans., silk shirts were reduced. Coffeyville, Kans., reported many cut price sales.

In Minneapolis one store announced a general cut of 20 per cent. At Knoxville, Tenn., department stores today made a discount of 20 per cent on its entire stock except a few contract price articles. Shoe reductions were also announced.

At Oklahoma City sale offers of 10 to 30 per cent reductions were reported. At Ardmore, one retailer announced a 20 per cent reduction. One men's store at Muskogee cut everything 10 to 20 per cent and other houses advertised sales of apparel with reductions of 20 per cent.

At San Antonio two stores announced reduction sales of 20 per cent, another a 25 per cent cut sale. At Waco another department store announced it had knocked one-fifth off its prices. An El Paso store cut shoes 33 1-3 per cent and clothing 25 per cent.

At Fort Smith, Ark., special sales said reduction was 20 per cent. At Pine Bluff one men's store and one women's store made the same cut. Slight reductions in shoes and wearing apparel were noted at Texarkana, and at Little Rock retailers last week made cuts from a fifth to a quarter. At Springfield, merchants announced th esame reduction. Atchison, Kans., announced 20 per cent cuts.

INCREASED RAILROAD WAGES CERTAIN

It doesn't take a very wise man to guess that the pay of railroad workers and railroad rates will both be increased. Representatives of the brotherhoods have appeared before the labor board and presented reasons why the wages of the workers should be increased.

Representatives of the employers have practically corroborated these statements. With such evidence from both sides of what has in the past appeared a controversy only one course is left for the labor board.

THIS HELPS SOME

The proprietor of a big furnishing store in Omaha has reduced prices 30 per cent. When asked for his reason he said, "Prices of products took a decided fall several weeks ago and there is no use trying to deny it. "The price of one commodity has certainly shown a big drop by comparison with a year ago. That is binder twine. Then it was priced at 23 to 25c a pound and now the dealers are asking about 16c a pound. Unfortunately binding twine doesn't represent one of the largest expenses that a farmer has.

THE PAROLE SYSTEM

Twelve "honor' convicts have recently escaped from the prison farm at Joliet. These wholesale departures have resulted in the placing of a guard about the farm. State's Attorney Hoyne of Cook county recently presented some startling figures showing that convicts from that county are paroled almost as rapidly as they are sent to the penitentiary.

Since so many crimes are committed by paroled men, it seems patent that some revision of the parole system is needed. There is such a thing as being "too humanitarian." Possibly this applies also to the honor farm.

THE DEFINITION OF A REAL TOWN

In the current issue of Harper's Magazine Edward Hungerford, well known writer, has begun a series of articles on the general theme, "America Goes Back to Work." Mr. Hungerford bases this article and others which are to appear later on his experiences and observation in cities large and small in practically every state of the union. He took a long tour of investigation for the very purpose of gathering the material for the articles.

The conclusions at which he arrives are interesting and informing, especially in their relationship to industry and business conditions. Quite incidentally Mr. Hungerford defines what he considers a real town. He said "And these helped me toward a definition of the hitherto undefinable quality of a real town. It took form in two words 'Helpfulness' and 'co-operation.'

Jacksonville citizens who are keeping in touch with local public affairs and who sense the present day Jacksonville spirit must believe that men and women here are coming into an understanding of Mr. Hungerford's definition—are realizing that to make a city there must be "helpfulness" and "co-operation."

Rippling Rhymes
By Walt Mason

Der Tag

When a panic comes and swats us, bringing forty kinds of woe, and the sheriff comes and trots us to the court where bankrupts go, then we'll wonder, oh, we'll wonder, why, in booming, bulging times, when the trees were growing plunder, we refused to save some dimes. When the panic that's predicted by the wise men everywhere, comes along, and we're afflicted with a poorhouse bill of fare, then we'll do some idle raving, and we'll kick ourselves a verst, for we didn't do our saving when the broom was at its worst. Now that everything seems sunny, and our chances are the best, it's the time to put some money, with some mothballs, in a chest; put it down with cedar shavings, so the insects won't annoy; for the man who has his savings is the wisest kind of boy. Soon this crazy boom may trundle to the tomb, in ghostly robe; then the man who has a bundle is the man who'll ride the globe.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

Prof. Rufus C. Crampton

By Ensley Moore
(Member Illinois State Historical Society)

Any one having anything to do with Illinois College from 1854 to 1888 knew Prof. Crampton.

He was born in Farmington, Conn., February 24, 1828, and died in Jacksonville June 13, 1888, three score years of age.

Long Time Teacher

Rufus Cowles Crampton attended the Academy in his birthplace and entered Yale College, New Haven, Conn., at the age of nineteen years; being graduated third in a class of one hundred, in 1851. He was a member of the "Skull and Bones" secret fraternity. He first taught, after being graduated, for two years in Burlington, N. J., as a private tutor, then assistant principal in the classical academy at Farmington, Conn.; then principal of the Montrose Academy, in Pennsylvania, and came here in 1854. Here he was professor of mathematics in Illinois College. After the Civil War, about 1866, he established the Jacksonville Business College, now known for many years as Brown's Business College.

Prof. Crampton not only taught mathematics, in which he was distinguished in the College, but also Latin in the preparatory department. In this work, in June, 1863 he trained a body of the students for an exhibition in Strawn's Hall, which was a fine success and, at the then usual charge of twenty-five cents admission, paid expenses and turned over $82 to the Ladies' Soldiers' Aid society, L. B. Glover, Ensley Moore and John A. Bancroft being the committee on management.

Marries

The young professor was married September 8, 1853, to Miss Adeline Fanny Hart, and they were the parents of Edward H. Crampton, of the class of 1881, a civil engineer. In this connection it is to be said that Prof. Crampton was civil engineer of the city of Jacksonville about the time of its charter, in 1867, and "Ed" was afterwards city engineer.

Acting President

Prof. Crampeton took some of the financial burdens of the college off of President Sturtevant in 1870, and in 1877 he was made acting president, filling that office for six years During this time he ecured large additions to the funds of the college and built the Dormitory, to which the trustees gave the name of Crampton Hall.

Prof. E. A. Tanner became president of the college in 1882, relieving Prof. Crampton, who had broken down in health in his work.

Position and Honors

Prof. Crampton was professor of mathematics and astronomy (his favorite scienec) 1853-73; librarian, 1856-66; Hitchcock professor of mathematics and instructor in astromony, 1873-76; Acting President and Hitchcock Professor of Mathematics and Astronomy 1876-80; Acting President and Hitchcock Professor and Instructor in Logic 1880-81; Acting President and Hitchcock Professor 1881-82; Hitchcock Professor 1882-85; Hitchcock Professor and Instructor in Logic, 1885-88. His degrees were A. B., A. M., and L. L. D.

Lieutenant-Colonel.

A company largely of College students or ex-students, in 1864 invited Prof. Crampton to become their captain, which he did, serving some four or five months, in the "100 days" service, as Lieutenant-Colonel of the 145th Regiment of Illinois Volunteers.

Places of Residence.

Dr. Crampton built the octagional house, which he occupied for some years, on Park street, opposite the Campus. It is now occupied by the Russel sisters.

About 1876 Prof. Crampton built the house at the southwest corner of Lockwood and Parnassus Places. This latter was his final residence.

Funeral.

Prof. Crampton's funeral services were conducted at his house, June 15, 1888, by Rev. H. E. Butler, of the Congregational church, of which Prof. Crampton was a member; and by President Tanner, who delivered a long and heartfelt eulogy, crowded with history and personal recollections.

Mrs. Crampton survived her husband for a short time, as did his son, Edward H., who had meantime married and become the father of two sons and a daughter. Edward was a classmate of William Jennings Bryan, both of them being members of Sigma Pi Society.

Emery Abernathy, the ten year old son of Allen Abernathy, 734 North Main street was internally hurt Monday night about six o'clock when he was thrown from a bicycle which he was riding out near the show grounds.

It seems the lad had been used to riding on a wheel with a coaster and that the wheel from which he was thrown had none, and that he tried to stop suddenly but that the momentum carried him forward and the pedal threw him forcible against the handle bars. He was found unconsious and taken to his home where Dr. H. C. Woltman attended him. Examination reveled the fact that his kidneys were bruised and he will be confined to his bed for several weeks.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKERS ANNOUNCED

Rev. William Chalmer Covert Will Deliver Baccalaureate Sermon —Rev. Charles W. Gilkey Will Make Commencement Address.

Announcement was made at the chapel exercises at Illinois college Tuesday morning regarding the commencement arrangements for next June. The baccalauerate sermon to the senior class will be delivered by the Reverend William Chalmers Covert, D. D. of the First Presbyterian church, Chicago. Dr. Covert is already known to the friends of the college for he is a trustee of the college and spoke at the commencement four or fireyears ago.

A graduate of Hanover college, Indiana, and McCormick Theological Seminary, Chicago, Dr. Covert has held important pastorates in St. Paul and Chicago. He is not only a forceful speaker, but also a writer of some note. He writes frequently for the Continent and other periodicals and is the author of "The Glory of the Pines" "Wild Woods and Water Ways" and other volumes. The baccalaureate service will be held this year on Sunday, June 6th in the Congregational church. The Congregational, State street and Westminster Presbyteritan churches unite in this service.

The commencement speaker will be the Reverend Charles W. Gilkey, pastor of the Hyde Park Baptist church, Chicago. Mr. Gilkey is a graduate of Harvard University and the Union Theological Seminary. He was also a student at the foreign universities of Berlin, Marburg and Oxford. Mr. Gilkey is one of the most popular speakers at the annual Geneva conferences of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. At one time and another he has been University preacher at Harvard, Yale, Princeton and Cornell and is to be the convocation speaker at the University of Minnesota this year. The commencement exercises are held in the College Grove Wednesday morning, June 9.

IT'S the man of farsight and vision that turns the conditions of today to his future advantage. The dollar of today looks mighty small in relation to its buying power and most of us are getting a sufficent number of those dollars to meet our current cost of living and few dollars over. But the days are not far off when that dollar will grow in purchasing power and when it does the dollars will not be so plentifully or generously circulated. The man who saves those little dollars now and puts them away in a safe Savings Bank will find they have grown tremendously in importance and usefulness when dollars are scarcer and when the spendthrifts and improvident have carelessly failed to conserve against future opportunty and need.

Now is the time to save—now while the dollars are easy to get. You cannot "eat your cake and have it too." So let's save the cake for a time when it will be most substantial and harder to procure.

Save those little 1920 dollars. They'll be mighty big dollars in 1925, or before.

Second Convention

Second Convention

The second Republican National Convention met at Chicago May 16, 1860, in the famous "wigwam" specially erected for the occasion and with accommodations for 10,000 people. Delegates attended from all the free-soil states and from the six slave states of Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, Kentucky, Missouri and Texas.

The temporary chairman was David Wilmot—author of the famous "Wilmot Proviso" and formerly an anti-slavery Democrat. The permanent chairman was George Ashmun of Massachusetts.

Seward was the leading Presidential candidate when the Convention assembled, and to him was attached an earnest, affectionate following. His only formidable rival was Lincoln, whose debates with Douglass in 1858 had builded him into tremendous challenge.

"Favorite sons" first put in their appearance at this convention; Simon Cameron from Pennsylvania, Edward Bates from Missouri, Salmon P. Chase from Ohio, William L. Dayton from New Jersey (nominated for Vice-President four years previously) and Jacob Collamer from Vermont. Together they represented 140 votes—an uncertain but determining Convention factor.

On the first ballot, Seward led handily. On the second, Pennsylvania helped Lincoln close the gap. On the third, Lincoln was within 1 1-2 votes of nomination; and ere the totals were formally announced, Ohio swung over to him the neecessary votes from Chase to designate the Great Emancipator to his immortal task. Two ballots nominated Hannibal Hamlin of Maine for Vice-President.

The platform inveighed bitterly against dis-union—thanks to an amendment to the Resolutions Committee report forced by Joshua R. Giddings and George William Curtis of New York; denied that the Constitution automatically carried slavery into all states or into any territories; declared for a free-soil; renewed appeal for a Pacific railroad; and enunciated the doctrine of tariff protection.

One of the interesting figures in this Convention was Horace Greeley, famous editor of the New York Tribune who—though theretofore a boon political partner of Seward's—appeared in the Convention amid Seward's opposition. Unable to obtain a seat from New York, he went to Chicago as a delegate from Oregon—convention rules not then prohibiting this sort of absentee representation.

STUDENTS FROM SOUTH AMERICA COMING HERE

It is interesting to note that two young women from Buenos Aires will be among students enrolled at Illinois Woman's College next year. Bishop Oldham of South America is now at Des Moines in attendance at the general conference of the Methodist church and while there President Harker completed the arrangemnts with him for the coming of the two students. It is expected that the young women will remain here for several years and complete an extended course of study before returning to their home in Buenos Aires. The fact that the college introduced the study of Spanish two years ago has materially increased the interest of students here in countries of Central and South America.

Studebaker Owner Drives Car 35,000 Miles in Year Not a Cent for Repairs.

Much of distance covered was over mountains—Car in excellent shape at end of grind—Record of John Stout of Sonora, Cal., remarkable, yet not so much so when quality of car considered.

Covering 35,000 miles in a year, much of it over mountainous country, and spending not a cent for repairs, is the remarkable record set by a resident of Sonora, Cal., John Stout by name, in his Studebaker Big-Six. Just as remarkable is the fact that at the end of the long grind a careful inspection showed no indication of the hard usage the car had seen.

Mr. Stout's car, purchased in January, 1919, was placed in service running out of Sonora as a stage and rent car.

Back of Sonora there are many miles of the kind of roads that motorists see when they have had bad dreams, and it is this type on which the Studebaker was run most of its 35,000 miles.

"That a car should do 35,000 miles with absolutely no trouble of any kind other than an occasional puncture is quite remarkable in itself," declared an expert who went over the car at the conclusion of the distance. "This automobile not only did that but was in excellent shape at the end of its long grind.

"The transmission in this time was never cleaned out, and the differential, crank case and transmission had no attention other than the adding of more oil from time to time. When the car was ready to reassemble, it was found that the gears showed almost no sign of the distance that had been traveled."

I have several 1920 5 and 7-passenger Studebakers ready for immediate delivery. Prices will advance June 1. Get in now, on the old price.

FRANCIS REXROAT IS MARRIED IN IOWA

Miss Maude McCune is Bride of Jacksonville Young Man—Both Attended High School Here.

Miss Maude McCune of Centerville, Iowa, and Francis L. Rexroat of this city were united in marriage recently at St. Mary's church in Centerville. The Daily Iowegian published at Centerville, gives the following account of the wedding, mentioning that the bride belongs to one of the well known families of her home city:

Miss Maude McCune, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. McCune, of East Maple street and Francis L. Rexroat, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Rexroat, of Jacksonville, Ill., were united in marriage this morning at 8:30 o'clock in St. Mary's church, Rev. Father Kaufmann performing the ceremony. The wedding was a most beautiful and impressive one coming at the early hour in the morning with the immediate family present and only a few guests.

After the wedding party entered the church the choir sang the nuptial high mass and at the offertory Mrs. C. P. Tillmont beautifully sang "Ava Maria", being accompanied by Miss Mary Tillmont and Mrs. H. E. Valentine. Immediately following the ceremony Phillip Buscemi sang the "Song Divine". The couple were accompanied by Edward Leonard and Miss Marie Rexroat, sister of the goom.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride at 10:00 o'clock, those present being the immediate families of both the bride and the groom, Edward Leonard, of Jacksonville, Mrs. Roy Webster, of Jacksonville and Mrs. J. J. Kelly, also of Jacksonville. Those from this city who were present were Dr. and Mrs. C. P. Tillmont and two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ellis and daughter, Hygiene, Mrs. Pearl Johnson and son, Kenneth.

The home had been most tastily decorated for the event, pink and white being the color scheme used in the dining room. The breakfast was served under a canopy of pink and white drappings and the table itself delightfully set among a vast floral display of roses and spring flowers. The parlor and music rooms were beautiful with their settings of palms and roses.

The bride wore an elaborate gown of white organdie over which fell a veil of tulle. She carried a beautiful shower bouquet of brides roses.

Miss Marie Rexroat, as brides maid, was attired in a dress of lavender organdie with a picture hat of lavender georgette and carried Killarney roses.

Although the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. McCune are well known in this city, the bride herself has never made this her home. When the family came here from Jacksonville a year ago, Miss Maude did not come but remained in Jacksonville. She was graduated from the Jacksonville high school and also the Dixon Business college and was also a student in the Dixon Musical conservatory. Her beauty and winning personality had secured for her many friends in this city during her short stay with her parents prior to her marriage.

The groom is also a graduate from the Jacksonville high school. He afterwards attended the Brown Business college. Leaving school he went on the farm with his father who has extensive farming interests. It is to a beautiful country home near Concord, Ill., that Mr. Rexroat will take his bride where he will continue his farming associations with his father, who is also a large raiser of live stock.

The couple left this afternoon for Chicago where they will spend a few days before returning to their new home.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE MAY FETE GREAT SUCCESS

Scenes Were Beautiful and Greatly Enjoyed by Audience—Dances and Costumes Especially Pleasing — Personnel of Players.

Although Tuesday was somewhat gloomy and threatening thruout the day the May Day exercises at the Illinois Womans College were held on the campus in the late afternoon. Monday had been originally set for the May Day but rain prevented the exercises from being held then.

The audience was not nearly so large as the performance deserved but many people were doubtful as to whether or not the May Day would be held and more were afraid that it would rain before the exercises could be finished. Nevertheless there was a fair sized crowd present and they were not disappointed in their anticipations regarding the pageant.

The coronation of the Queen of the May is always one of the events of the college year to which the friends of the institution look forward with delight.

Miss Zerita Schwartz, last years ueen, led the processional of the dancers, which came in singing and passed around before the spectators up to the throne beside which they took their places. The May Queen's party followed the procession around and came to a halt in the center of the campus. Here Miss Schwartz crowned Miss Ruth Harker Queen of the May. The new Queen then took her place on the throne and the whole cast then honored her in a Grand March which was beautiful in the settings and figures made.

Miss Vere Wardner delighted the crowd with her solo, Anitra's dance. On the two previous May Days and at various other times Miss Wardner has danced for and pleased Jacksonville people and her name on a program is evidence of something worth while. Miss Wardner also had charge of all the May dances.

The Freshman class gave a hoop dance in which there were many pretty pictures, the girls were dressed in the light pastel shades and carried hoops and toy balloons. At the end of their dance balloons were let go and made quite a sight as they floated away over the top of Harker Hall.

The Siciliano is a Spanish dance with tamborines. Following this the Junior Class presented St. George's play, and Old English Interlude in which each of the actors comes out and introduces himself, King Alfred and his bride were there, so were Kings William and Cole, St. George, and the Dragon, Jack and Giant Blunderbore. They all met a tragic end but the large pills of Dr. Ball revived them. In keeping with this were the Morris dancers, who gave a short sword dance.

The Sophomore class as the Gay Hussars dressed in purple and yellow uniforms gave a military Folk dance which was a pleasing sight. This was followed by the Pompeiian Flower Girls who were dressed in purple and carried baskets of lilacs, their dance was one of the prettiest on the program.

Miss Wardner gave an interpretative dance, Spirit of Spring, which was extremely light and fairylike.

The May Pole dance was the last, four girls from each class danced this, winding the streamers in a number of different figures and unwinding them, in a manner which was pleasing to watch.

Certainly much of the success of the May Day is due to Miss Stanwood, the physical director, who trained the girls for the dances. Miss Ruth Harper was chairman of the committee in charge of the May Day and everything went smoothly.

Miss Bernice Holnback directed the work in music and to her is largely due the credit for its excellence and made the scenes very attractive and beautiful. The costumes and the colors which were selected by Miss Nellie Knopf. The vocal music was under the able direction of Miss Louise Miller.

I. W. C. STUDENT OFFICERS INSTALLED

Tuesday morning at the service when the officers elect of the Illinois Woman's College Student Association were installed, President Harker in the course of his remarks called attention to the two-fold purpose of the college:

1. To develop character and ability in the students, and
2. To make the college increasingly efficient.

This can best be done by everyone connected with the college realizing their full responsibility, each contributing their fullest measure of personal service and all working in intelligent cooperation to the given ends. All cooperation requires the losing of self in the advantage of the whole, or better, such a coworking of each and all as to secure for each and for all the highest good. A college is not separate from society; it is a part of the social order; students are here not only making themselves and helping to make the college, but they are here in training for better citizenship and for making a better social order everywhere.

WATER SYSTEM TEST IS BROT TO MIND

Old Timer Tells of Trial Made Under Supervision of Council Committee in 1883.

John Dodsworth has been a long time resident of Morgan county and thru many years a reader of the Journal. In looking over some old documents recently Mr. Dodsworth found a copy of the Jacksonville Weekly Journal published in September, 1883. The paper in those days was published by the late C. M. Eames. It was a four page, nine column publication, the pages being nearly twice the size of those in a paper of the average size today.

One interesting item in the paper referred to a test just made of the new water system by a committee including Messrs. Marsh, Wolcott and Hayden, with the assistance of the firemen under Fire Chief Mitchell. The test was for the particular purpose of showing how high water could be thrown in case of fire. The first attachment was at the Ayers bank corner and the test indicated that water could be thrown 76 feet horizontally, "and when placed on the church reached nearly to the top of the arch of the second window in the west tower.'" This no doubt referred to the Presbyterian church which once occupied the ground where the Journal and Gilbert buildings now stand.

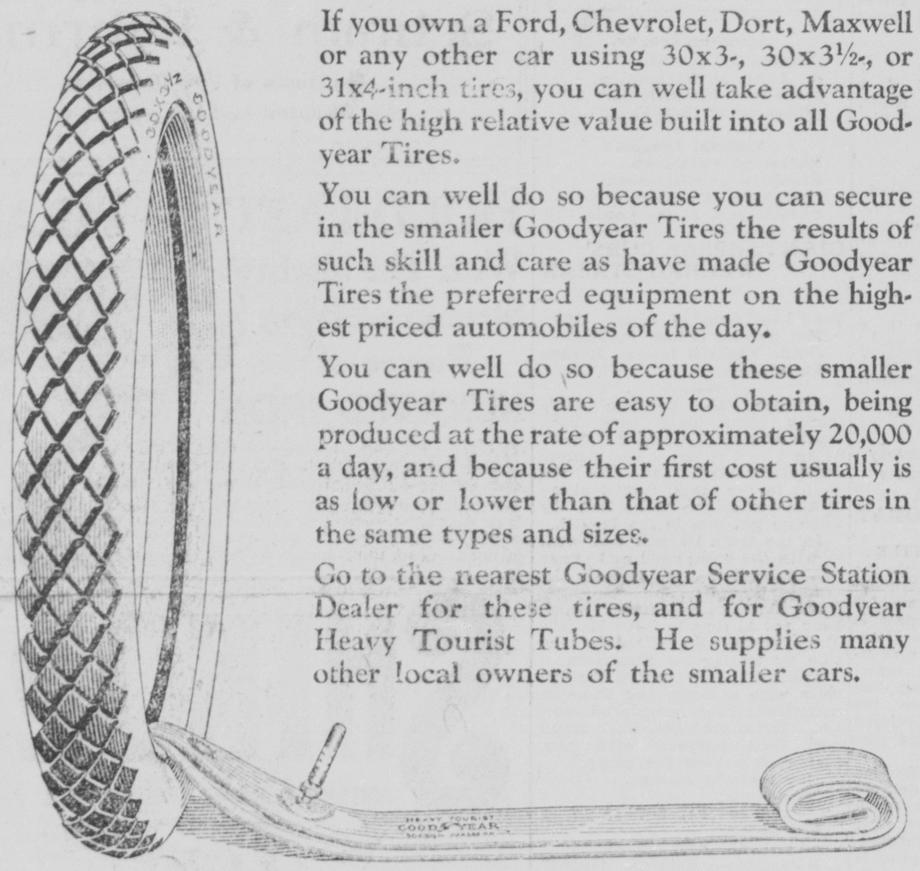
Equip Your Smaller Car With Goodyear Tires



If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or any other car using 30x3-, 30x3½-, or 31x4-inch tires, you can well take advantage of the high relative value built into all Goodyear Tires.

You can well do so because you can secure in the smaller Goodyear Tires the results of such skill and care as have made Goodyear Tires the preferred equipment on the highest priced automobiles of the day.

You can well do so because these smaller Goodyear Tires are easy to obtain, being produced at the rate of approximately 20,000 a day, and because their first cost usually is as low or lower than that of other tires in the same types and sizes.

Go to the nearest Goodyear Service Station Dealer for these tires, and for Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes. He supplies many other local owners of the smaller cars.

30x3½ Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread $23.50

30 x 3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread $21.50

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are thick, strong tubes that reinforce casings properly. Why risk a good casing with a cheap tube? Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost little more than tubes of less merit. 30x3½ size in waterproof bag $4.50

FACTS GIVEN ABOUT WAR RISK CONTRACTS

Director of Bureau Makes Announcement of Interest to Ex-Service Men.

Colonel R. G. Cholmeley-Jones, director of the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, makes the following announcement regarding the policy contracts to be issued under the United States Government Life Insurance Policy (converted insurance) to which the War Risk Term Insurance may be converted:

Among the principal features included in the U. S. Government Life Insurance contracts, which have been approved by Secretary of the Treasury, D. F. Houston, are:

First, that the insured has three optional settlements:

Option 1. Insurance payable in one sum. Settlement under this option will be made only when selected by the insured during his lifetime or by his last will and testament.

Option 2. Insurance payable in elected installments. The monthly installments are payable for an agreed number of months (not less than thirty-six) to the designated beneficiary, but if such beneficiary dies before the agreed number of monthly installments have been paid, the remaining unpaid monthly installments will be payable in accordance with the beneficiary provisions of the policy.

Option 3. Insurance payable in installments through life. The installments may be payable throughout the lifetime of the designated beneficiary if they so elect, but if such designtated beneficiary dies before two hundred and forty such installments have been paid, the remaining unpaid installments will be payable in accordance with the beneficiary provisions of the policy.

Total and Permanent Disability Benefits.

Second the policies provide for total and permanent disability to the insured covering the entire period the policy is in force, and during the period of the insured's total and permanent disability. The total and permanent disability feature is also included in the paid-up extended features of the policy contract.

Total permanent disability as referred to in the policy contract is any impairment of mind or body which continuously renders it impossible for the disabled person to follow any substantially gainful occupation and which is founded upon conditions which render it reasonably certain that it will continue throughout the life of the person suffering from it.

There are six plans of United States Government Life Insurance (Converted Insurance) (L) Ordinary Life 2) Twenty-payment Life (3) Thirty-payment Life (4) Twenty-year Endowment (5) Thirty-year Endowment and Endowment maturing at age 62.

The policies include participation in dividends, incontestability, freedom from restrictions as to travel, residence, occupation, etc., cash surrender and loan values, liberal reinstatement provisions and other features which make the insurance of unusual value.

The policies themselves are now being printed and will be issued to all those who have availed themselves of their privilege to convert the war-time insurance into the new forms of U. S. Government Life Insurance policies.

If War Risk (term) insurance has lapsed or been cancelled, it is necessary to reinstate it before or at the time of conversion into one of the new policies. Under a special ruling, no matter how long a service man has been discharged or how long his insurance has been lapsed or cancelled he may reinstate his War Risk (term) insurance any time before July 1st, 1920, or within eighteen months after his discharge, if that be a later date, by the payment of only two monthly premiums on the amount of insurance to be reinstated, and a satisfactory statement of health with his application.

HOW TO RAISE BABY CHICKS

Put Avicol in the drinking water.

Most people lose half of every hatch and seem to expect it. Chick cholera or white diarrhoea is the trouble. The U. S. Government states that over half the chicks hatched die from this cause.

An Avicol tablet placed in the drinking water, will positively save your little chicks from all such diseases. Inside of 48 hours the sick ones will be as lively as crickets. Avicol keeps them healthy and makes them grow and develop.

Mrs. Vannie Thakery, R. F. D. 3, Sti Paris, O., writes: "I had 90 chicks and they all died but 32. Then I commenced on Avicol and haven't lost any since. They have grown wonderfully."

It costs nothing to try Avicol. If you don't find that it prevents and promptly cures white diarrhoea, chick cholera and all bowel diseases of poultry, tell us and your money will be refunded by return mail. Avicol is sold by most druggists and poultry remedy dealers; or you can send 25c or 50c today for a package by mail postpaid. Burrell-Dugger Co., 598 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

Too much weight in an automobile means low mileage to each tire and each gallon of gas. Too little weight means wasted power. The Chevrolet "Four-Ninety" Touring Car represents the happy medium in the matter of weight.

Making the Shoe Fit the Foot

ONE of the outstanding features of the efficiency of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is its ability to expand to meet conditions.

In 1919 there were 1,434,909 more motor vehicles in the United States than in 1918.

This enormous increase in automotive power made necessary a vast increase of distribution facilities in order that your car, wherever it might be, should never lose its usefulness because of an empty gasoline tank.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) anticipated this increasing demand and met it amply in the eleven states it serves with a fleet of 4306 motor trucks, a caravan of horse-drawn wagons, and a little army of 530,000 iron barrels, so that even in remote districts no tractor, truck or pleasure car, need be without fuel at any time.

Take into consideration the fact that of the 1,434,909 new motor vehicles put into service in 1919, approximately 573,964 went to farms, and you will appreciate the necessity for this vast distributive system.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) appreciates that the automobile has passed from the realm of luxury and has become an essential, and that gasoline to run it has become an industrial necessity.

The Company takes pride in the fact that it has met this need in the spirit of service, that it has been keen in anticipating the wants of the public, and efficient in satisfying them through the most perfect distribution system in the world.

MUST PAY THE PRINTER

Fourth Estate:—"Recently the Supreme Court of Minnesota handed down a decision in which every publisher in that state is deeply interested says the Houston Chief. There is not a newspaper that has not had experience with persons telling him that they did not order the paper, although they had enjoyed it for months, and refused payment for same.

"Justice Dibell in his decision says: One may accept delivery and make use of a newspaper delivered to, just as he may other things, under such circumstances as to make a contract implied in fact between him and the publisher.'

"Every man who receives a newspaper knows that the publisher expects him to pay for the same, and if he keeps on taking it from the post office he will, under the Supreme Court's ruling, be compelled to pay for it."

"JUST ONE" AND IT'S ALWAYS DONE

"Just One" is the Name o fthe Only Laxative of Which Just One is Always the Right Dose.

Just one talet of "Just One" is always a "just right" dose. The only laxative that never wears out, that gives the same results year in and year out, that your system does not become callous to, and that never needs to have its dosage increased.

All other laxatives work well only until your system gets used to them. Then you must either get a different kind or increase the dose. With "Just One" you get an entirely different laxative at each dose, because each of the 20 similar looking tablets in each box is made of different laxative ingredients. Each is a tried and proved successful formula, each is thorough, dependable and pleasant in action and each is different from the other 19. That's why they never wear out.

Quit pounding on one particular organ all the time. Use a laxative that works on different organs each dose. Stir up your liver one time, your pancreas another, your lower bowel another, and so on, always changing. You'll get much better results and without harming your system as other single-formula laxatives harm it. Try this new, scientilc way and you'll see why it is so much better.

Don't let the day pass without getting your box of "Just One." Any druggist anywhere can get "Just One" for you, or we will send it postpaid upon receipt of 25c per package. Ferritone Chemical Company, Council Bluffs, Iowa.—Adv.

FROM A FAR AWAY LAND.

Horace Turnham of Meredosia has returned from a sojourn of several years in Sydney, New South Wales, where he has been in the employ of the Bucyrus company of Milwaukee, superintending the erection of dredging machines. Some things in that far away land are certainly expensive. For example, he paid $33 for a pair of Nettleton shoes and $1 a gallon for gasoline. British money is not quite equal to ours but still, allowing for that, the prices were high.

As Good as Its Roof

No building is any better than its roof for the roof plays the most important part in protecting the contents of the building. The roof gets all the wear of the weather; the hot rays of the summer sun, the pelting rains of autumn, the driving sleet of winter, the melting snows of spring. So, make those new buildings good by covering them with Ru-ber-oid.

RU-BER-OID ROOFING

will not soften nor ooze oil under the fiercest rays of the tropic sun. It is leak-proof—in fact, you may soak it in water for months without its being in any way affected. It will not crack or become brittle in below-zero weather nor will the wet snows of early spring penetrate its tough coating of asphalt composition.

Ru-ber-oid, when properly laid, lies flat and will not "pull", it will not sweat nor corrode through from the under side (as metal will), it will wear as long as, and is far less expensive than a shingle roof.

But do not confuse Ru-ber-oid with other ready-roofings. There are many that look like it, feel like it, and seem like it in every way, but they are not like it. There is only one Ru-ber-oid, and that has been made for the last quarter century by The Standard Paint Company, the pioneer manufacturers of prepared roofings.

We would be glad to tell you more about Ru-ber-oid Roofing. We always have it in stock. Phone us today for samples and prices.

There is but one Ru-ber-oid.
The Standard Paint Company makes it.

BIG CRASH IN CORN PRICES

CHICAGO, May 18.—Prices crashed down in the corn market today as much as 7¼ cents a bushel. Failure of two Kansas banks, embarrased by unwieldy loans on grain, did a good deal to bring about the selling stampede which took place and which attained almost whirlwind force at the last. The close was semi-demoralized 3⅛ to 6¾c net lower, with July $1.69¾ to $1.70 and September $1.60¼ to $1.60⅜. Oats finished ⅞c to 3 down and provisions off 7½c to 15c.

Weakness in the corn market began to develop as soon as trading commenced. New low records for Liberty Bonds increased the uneasiness due to the Kansas bank failures, and anxiety on the part of holders of grain was further deepened by word of extensive price-slashing at department stores and of industrial establishments laying off employes, besides reports were circulated that radical measures were about to be quickly taken zq the Interstate Commerce Commission with a view to breaking the railway traffic jam that has been persistently blockading the movement of grain. The consequent downward plunge of the corn market became especially wild just before the close. Rallying power was but little in evidence as the gongs cleared the pit.

Oats gave way with corn, but were steadied somewhat thru aggressive commission house buying of the September delivery.

Lower quotations on grain depressed provisions, but the effect was partly counter-balanced by an advance in hog values.

"IT DID THE WORK" STATES SALESMAN

Had Not Seen a Well Day in Two Years Before Taking Tanlac

"Yes, sir, the way Tanlac has built me up has set all my friends to talking about my remarkable improvement," said Carl G. Cato, a well known retail salesman living at 322½ South Sixth Street, Springfield, Illinois recently.

"All my life I had enjoyed the best kind of health up until two years ago but since then I have hardly known what a well day was. My appetite was so poor that when I sat down to the table I had no taste for anything and I had to force myself to eat enough to keep from starving. Naturally I lost considerable weight and got in a badly run-down condition. Sharp, sickening headaches often came on me while I was at the store and I would get so weak and dizzy I felt like I was going to faint and I would have to leave my work and go home and go to bed. My nerves were shattered and I noticed myself growing irritable and fretful, and some of my old friends were beginning to remark about how bad my health was getting and to advise me to do something to get back in good shape before it was too late.

"One day I got a letter from my daughter in Decatur, Illinois, advising me to try Tanlac as she had taken it with fine results. I gave it a trial and I want to say it did the work and now all my friends who used to sympathize with me are congratulating me on how well and strong I am looking. I have the finest kind of appetite and everything tastes good. I have already gained ten pounds and am still adding on more weight right along. I am free from nervousness and dizziness and the sickening headaches left me long ago. Tanlac proved to be a friend i nneed and I am always telling the customers what it did for me."

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover & Shreve and by the leading drug store in every town.—Adv.

LIVE STOCK MAN TAKES THE OPTIMISTIC VIEW

John T Alexander in Address Expresses Belief Conditions Will Improve for Men Who Raise Cattle and Hogs

John T. Alexander recently made an address before the Indiana Cattle Feeders' association assembled at Purdue University in Lafayette, Ind. His theme was "The Market Outlook," referring of course to livestock, as Mr. Alexander is one of the veteran livestock commission men in Illinois. For yars he has been a prominent figure in the affairs the Indiana Cattle Feeders' association and is frequently called upon for his opinion on cattle feeding and marketing questions.

In his address at Lafayette Mr. Alexander made the following statements:

Improvement in Prospect.

That the cattle business is passing through a critical stage is obvious to any trade student and since the European armistice was declared, conditions have been more or less chaotic and order is restored overnight. The past season has been little short of catastrophe to the rank and file of beef makers, especially those handling heavy cattle. It is not an opportune moment for prediction, especially if the forecaster values his reputation and yet all the signs point to improvement.

That feeders have never been as seriously discouraged is a statement not open to dispute and if half of those who avow and intend never to feed another steer adhere to that resolution no seventh son will be needed to successfully forecast beef scarcity. That many will let feeding alone next season is my opinon, consequently it will be an opportune time to stick to the cattle business The axiom that money may be found where it was lost applies in this case.

Recounting what has happened is useless. It is an open chapeter, although much of such vicissias feeders have encountred was outside the range of probability when cattle were put in last fall. The bull market in corn was certainly not on the cards nor could the paralyzing influence or rail embargoes have been foreseen. cattle feeders have been dealt from unexpected quarters. The heavy steer has been a bad actor for several reasons, the chief being that too many were put in; the other main reason that consumers in a determined effort to economize have insisted on light cuts, even at the expns of quality, in fact, quality has been a minor consideration. When fat cattle sold at half current cost the public could afford heavy beef.

Range Cattle Industry Hurt.

What these heavy cattle will do the rest of the year is anybody's guess but in my opinion we will have a good market later in the season, as the winter fed crop will have been worked off 30 days hence, no distillery cattle are available this year and for months past feeders have no inducement to put in weighty cattle.

How badly damaged the range cattle industry has been by an unprecedented drouth followed by a sub-artic winter is being gradually disclosed. From no trans-Missouri beef supply source will a normal supply of beef be available this season. Even Kansas pastures have absorbed fewer cattle than usual and estimates on beef gathering in the northwest indicate deficiencies running from 35 to 75 per cent according to locality. With a light supply of corn fed cattle the last half of the year and fewer range cattle than in many years past, prices should revive if the industrial conditions continue healthy.

Admitting that we are in a period of declining commodity value, we must remember that beef should be immune to further depreciation as it has already taken its punishment, in fact beef is the cheapest human food available at present. The future course of the market will naturally be influenced by consumptive demand, but unless supply estimates are radically wrong scarcity alone should insure a healthy market. The cattle market has practically passed through reconstruction, while other commodities are merely at the portals of that period.

In this connection it may not be amiss to note that while receipts of all cattle at the principal primary markets of the United States during the first four months of the current year showed a decrease of only 1.92 per cent compared to the same period of 1919, the stock cattle movement fell off 22.01 per cent, the movement out of Kansas City having been reduced 30 per cent.

Hog Demand to Improve.

Fat hogs, like fat cattle have not ben paying board. Adverse foreign exchange and practical closure of the export outlet, temporarily at least, have been distictly disadvantageuos to the big hog, but the technical position of the market has improvel recently. Lard stocks look big but vegetable fats are scarce and high, consequently an outlet for lard must develop. That the new pig crop is short will not be disputed and domestic consumption of fresh pork, bacon, hams and all popular cuts is at record volume. The moment export demand revives, and it must before long, the hog market will respond. Germany's crippled financial condition is mainly responsible for what has happened to heavy hogs recently.

Western sheep flocks have encountered much the same vicissitude as cattle during the past year. That market has been on a prosperous basis all winter, due to scarcity and increasing popularity of lamb. The 1920 lamb crop in the West is short enough to warrant expectancy of good prices all through the summer and fall months, as there will be a healthy demand for feeders.

President J. R. Harker of the Woman's College has done a very gracious deed. For many years his baccalaurate sermon has been at Centenary church Sunday morning but this year as the memorial discourse to the Grand Army will fall on the same day and has been announced in the morning, Dr Harker, without a request or suggestion from any one has graciously changed the hour for his exercises till evening of that day. The worthy gentleman may be certain his act of courtesy will be fully appreciated.

SAVE THE SEED CORN.

A prominent farmer of this vicinity was remarking yesterday on the great probability of soft corn, if we have any, this fall and he said all men who have any seed corn left over from this year's planting should save it most carefully as it will be worth a great deal of money next year. There is nothing on the farm more important than first class seed corn. It doesn't take very much to the acre but it should be of the very best.

A FINE WATER PLANT.

Workmen and teams were busily engaged yesterday in loading a huge plate iron tank and a large boiler to be taken to the farm of Dr. Applebee to be used in his water works system. He has an elevation back of his house where he will plant the water heater and from it convey the contents to the house heating it and having hot and cold water all over the dwelling. It will be quite and elaborate plant when fully completed. Bernard Gause is the contracting engineer.

JORDAN

In reply to the question, "Where is the saturation point in automobile sales?" Mr. Edward S. Jordan, president of the Jordan Motor Car Company, of Cleveland, replied: "When everyone drives and no automobiles wear out."

"The tendency, however, is very definitely toward standardization of the industry. With production still far behind orders, every effort is being made to bring the number of cars of each individual factory up to the minimum of production. Labor conditions in general, lack of materials, and a tightening of the money market, has caused many plants to fall below quotas set for this time of the year.

"Consolidation of plants is a problem of the future. The need of today that confronts the automobile manufacturer is not the market saturation but rather, how to produce cars to cover the orders already on file. No doubt the time will come when the automobile industry will shake down to a few great controlling companies. This is seemingly a long way off, however.

"When the day comes when automobiles will be bought rather than sold, then the test period will have arrived to determine how many of the cars built today can survive without consolidating with other car manufacturers.

"Such a move would bring production up to a higher degree of efficiency and would minimize financial difficulties which are always so prevalent when supply exceeds demand."

One man with one tractor does all field work from plowing to harvest

Wash Tubs vs. Gold Dollars

This is the year of years to put in a full acreage, and courageous business farmers are getting their "wash tubs" out of doors despite difficulties, all ready for the rain of "gold dollars" that is just ahead of them.

A factory overcomes labor shortage by using machines that do the work of a number of men. They often pay very high prices for such machines, but it pays them in labor savings.

The labor shortage never was so great as right now, but it need not affect you, if you use a Moline-Universal Tractor.

Here is what one man and a Moline-Universal Tractor can do in a ten hour day:

Plow 7 to 9 acres
Disc 27 acres with a 7' Tandem Disc Harrow
Disc 38 acres with a 10' Disc Harrow
Harrow 76 acres with a 20' Peg Tooth Harrow
Cultivate from 13 to 20 acres with a two-row Cultivator
Drill 35 acres with a 10' Grain Drill
Harvest 40 acres with a 10' Grain Binder
Harvest 10 acres with a Corn Binder
Mow 25 acres with a 8' Mower
Rake 40 acres with a 12' Rake

In addition it makes a powerful and economical stationary power plant up to 24" separator capacity.

We can prove to you that a Moline-Universal Tractor will be a profitable investment for you. A demonstration on your own farm cheerfully arranged.

If desired you can use the "drag behind" or horse drawn implements you now have with the Moline-Universal the same as with other types of tractors.
